CHARLES C. ALLEN
... New Vice President

Local Men Named to Bank Posts

Torrance residents Charles C. Allen and Delbert K. Falsken have been appointed to new posts by Security First National Bank.

Allen has been named assistant vice president, Westchester branch, and Falsken has taken over the assistant managerial duties at the 49th and Western branch.

Allen is a new resident in Torrance, having previously lived in Blythe where he served as assistant manager of Security's branch there. While in Blythe he was also active in various community and civic affairs.

During World War II he served with the U. S. Air Force

University Classes Set For Torrance

UCLA University Extension classes will begin the week of Feb. 5 at North high school. The class program will be supplemented by special events such as films, conferences and liberal arts discussion groups. Adults interested may obtain the spring catalogue of classes on request to University Extension, UCLA, Los Angeles 24 (Bradshaw 2-6161, station 721).

Classes will range in study topics from art, business administration and education, through engineering, psychology and real estate in several South Bay communities.

DELBERT K. FALSKEN
... Assistant Manager

as a captain and holds the Distinguished Flying Cross. He and his wife, Margaret, live at 4215 W. Calle Mayor. They have a son, Michael, a fourth classman, Naval Academy, Annapolis.

FALSKEN, a native of Verdon, Neb., worked for the First National Bank, Falls City, Neb., before moving to California and joining Security in 1959.

Prior to his promotion, he served at the bank's Crenshaw and Santa Barbara branch.

Falsken and his wife, Anna Mae, make their home at 18731 Wilton Place.

Ernest A. Luning, seaman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Luning of 2614 W. 180th St., is serving aboard the destroyer USS McDermut, a unit with the First Fleet which took part in Exercise "Covered Wagon" off the coast of Southern California.
